"I'm thrilled to be involved with the Youth4Youth Challenge !

My very first step towards becoming a professional adventurer was bushwalking in our beautiful National Parks.

The self-confidence I gained from simply exploring our own backyard, and the unbreakable bonds I've built with my friends who've joined me are two important assets that have helped me in all aspects of my life.

Get out there - and get your mates involved too - who knows where the trail could take you!
